

April 26, 1910

Mr. Charles F. Lummis,
The South West Museum,
Los Angeles, California.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your recent favor, regarding the possibility of our publishing a volume of fifty or sixty SPANISH FOLK SONGS transcribed by Arthur Farwell and Harvey Worthington Loomis, would say that we cannot, in the nature of things, report upon the matter without first seeing the Ms. Such a volume might possibly find place in our "Musicians Library" which is to contain a number of volumes of folk songs. The work of the two gentlemen you name is well known to us. Should you send us the Ms. by express you may be sure it will be given very careful consideration.

Very truly yours,

DICT. W. A. F.

OLIVER DITSON COMPANY